*To learn anew the Gospel:
The Good News that God loves us—Then to live it and share it.*

From the Deacon's Bench...

Brothers and Sisters,

If we watch the news on any given evening, we are constantly confronted with the violence in our communities and in our world, but as Catholic Christians we still hold onto hope. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. wrote, "I refuse to accept the view that mankind is so tragically bound to the starless midnight of racism and war that the bright daybreak of peace and brotherhood can never become a reality... I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word." "Truth and unconditional love" that is the message, the gift of the Gospel. It's the gift we are called to share. We spread the gospel message of truth and unconditional love in simple ways. And, we begin in our own little corner of the Kingdom.

So, how are we doing? Fr. Henri Nouwen suggests a daily check-up, "Did I offer peace today? Did I bring a smile to someone's face? Did I say words of healing? Did I let go of my anger and resentment? Did I forgive? Did I love? These are the real questions. I must trust that the little bit of love that I sow now will bear many fruits, here in this world and the life to come."

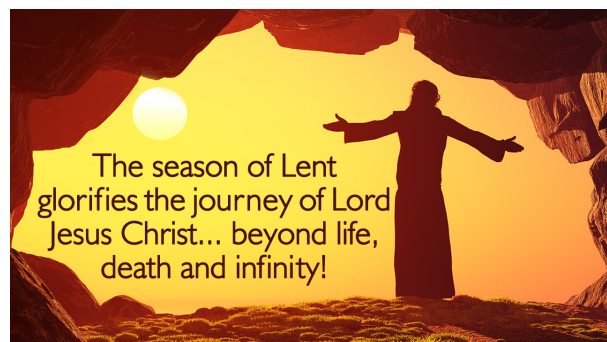

Happy Lent!

Peace,
Dcn. Kerry
