From the Deacon's Bench

Brothers and Sisters,

Let's start with a Black Catholic History month note: Fr. Charles Randolph Uncles was the son of a B & O Railroad worker and a dressmaker. Fr. Uncles was an extremely intelligent student in high school and college. He broke the color barrier at Baltimore's St. Mary's Seminary, at a time when segregation within and outside the Catholic Church was the norm. Fr. Uncles' ordination, in 1891 made headlines around the country, including those of the New York Times newspaper. Two years after his ordination, Father Uncles became one of the founders of the St. Joseph Society of the Sacred Heart. More commonly known as the Josephites, this order's mission is to evangelize African Americans, mostly in the United States.

Our parish calendars for 2019 are produced by the Josephites. We'll have these calendars for you when we celebrate St. Andrew's feast on Sunday, November 18th. Please plan to join your parish family for Mass and fellowship at the following luncheon.

A reminder that we have one week to go on collecting the makings of our Thanksgiving outreach. Please help with donations of canned and boxed goods. We will also do the shopping for you if you wish to donate cash. Through our efforts, families in need will have Thanksgiving dinner.

Peace,
Dcn. Kerry
