*To learn anew the Gospel:
The Good News that God loves us—Then to live it and share it.*

From the Deacon's Bench

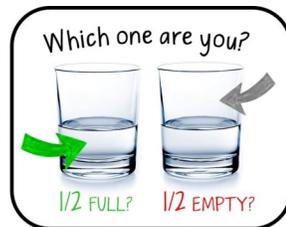

Brothers and Sisters,

There's the old question, "Is the glass half full or half empty?" I remember when this question was posed to a group of our young people preparing for Confirmation, one of them suggested, "Maybe it's not either; maybe you need a different sized glass." That came to mind as I sat down to write this note for the bulletin.

Usually, as I consider what to write, I have an idea in mind centered on events happening either in the parish or in the world. Well, given the ongoing pandemic, we don't seem to have much to report on in the parish. However, there are things, important things, happening in the world.

We are seeing a growing awareness of injustices in our society that many have ignored or, even in some cases, promoted for far too long. We are in the midst of a pandemic that is changing the very way in which we go about our daily lives. How are these things impacting our lives?

Is our glass half full or half empty? Are we looking at the challenges around us and despairing? Are we focusing on the limitations (the things we can't do as easily) or are we looking for the opportunities (the ways in which we might grow)? Are we still looking for joy? Or just maybe, it is time to get a different sized glass. Maybe, we need to take stock of who and what are really important in our lives and let that be our focus.

It's something to consider . . .

Peace,
Dcn. Kerry

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. } bow

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Entrance Hymn – City of God

Refrain:

Let us build the city of God.
May our tears be turned into dancing!
For the Lord, our light and our love,
has turned the night into day!

Verses:

1. Awake from your slumber! Arise from your sleep!
A new day is dawning for all those who weep.
The people in darkness have seen a great light.
The Lord of our longing has conquered the night.
2. We are sons of the morning; we are daughters of day. The One who has loved us has brightened our way. The Lord of all kindness has called us to be a light for his people to set their hearts free.

Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 119) - Lord, I Love Your Commands

Refrain:

Lord, I love your commands.

Verses:

1. My part, I have resolved, O Lord, is to obey your word. The law from your mouth means more to me than silver and gold.
2. Let your love be ready to console me by your promise to your servant. Let your love come and I shall live for your law is my delight.
3. That is why I love your commands more than finest gold, why I rule my life by your precepts and hate false ways.
4. Your will is wonderful indeed; therefore I obey it. The unfolding of your word gives light and teaches the simple.

Preparation of the Gifts – The Summons

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name? Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same? Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen, and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

Will you love the "you" you hide if I but call your name? Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same? Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around, through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name. Let me turn and follow you and never be the same. In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show. Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

Communion Hymn – Eye Has Not Seen

Refrain:

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard what God has ready for those who love him; Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus, teach us the wisdom of God.

Verses:

1. When pain and sorrow weigh us down, be near to us, O Lord, forgive the weakness of our faith, and bear us up with in your peaceful word.
2. Our lives are but a single breath, we flower and we fade, yet all our days are in your hands, so we return in love what love has made.
3. To those who see with eyes of faith, the Lord is ever near, reflected in the faces of all the poor and lowly of the world.
4. We sing a mystery from the past in halls where saints have trod, yet ever new the music rings to Jesus, Living Song of God.

Closing Hymn – Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

Holy God, we praise thy Name!
 Lord of all, we bow before thee;
 All on earth thy scepter claim,
 All in heav'n above adore thee;
 Infinite thy vast domain, everlasting is thy reign.
 Infinite thy vast domain, everlasting is thy reign.

Hark! the loud celestial hymn
 Angel choirs above are raising;
 Cherubim and Seraphim
 In unceasing chorus praising,
 Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord: Holy, holy, holy Lord!
 Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord: Holy, holy, holy Lord!

Holy Father, Holy Son,
 Holy Spirit, Three we name thee,
 While in essence only One,
 Undivided God we claim thee,
 And adoring bend the knee, while we own the mystery.
 And adoring bend the knee, while we own the mystery.
